

Homes for the Elderly, Rümlang

The six-storey new building contains 22 apartments for the elderly, a floor for assisted living supported by the neighbouring Lindenhof Home for the Elderly, a Spitex (in-home medical care service) support point and a doctors' practice. The complex includes 26 parking spaces, cellars, a roof garden and a multi-function room.

Client

Stiftung Alterswohnen Rümlang

Architect

Oswald Architekten, Oberglatt

Location

Rümlang

Use

Apartment building with home assistance service

Key Dates

2002 | Competition

2003 | Preliminary project

2005 | Design

2007 April | Start of construction

2008 | Completion

Costs

CHF 11.4 million

Our Role

Project organisation for the foundation's board of trustees

Our Tasks

Project definition and structure

General time schedule

Organisation of involved parties (Foundation, planners)

Construction issues consulting

Quality supervision

Costs and deadlines

Photos/Visualisations

© Alexandre Kapellos

