

Police and Justice Centre, Zurich

The Police and Justice Centre Zurich (PJZ) on the former goods station site in Zurich Aussersihl-Hard is a new competence centre for the fight against crime. The PJZ unites the cantonal police, which was spread over 30 different locations, with Zurich's law enforcement authorities and the new Zurich West Prison.

Client

Building Department Kanton Zurich

General Contractor

HRS Real Estate AG

Architect

General Planner / Architect:
Theo Hotz Partner AG, Zurich

Location

Zurich Aussersihl-Hard, goods station site (Güterbahnhof)

Use

Police: Cantonal Police, Forensic Science Institute and Police School

Justice: Public Prosecution Department, Office for the Execution of Penal Sentences and Justice and Compulsory Measures Court

Key Dates

2017 | Laying of foundation stone
from 2017 November | Development of Project Quality Management
2021 / 2022 | Occupation

Costs

CHF 568,6 million (incl. purchase of goods station site) | CHF 191.3 million fixed costs

Our Role

Project Quality Management (PQM)

Our Tasks

Conducting and updating risk analysis;
development and detailed tracking of QM plan;
creating and checking quality test plans;
PQM reporting

Photos/Visualisations

© Till Forrer

